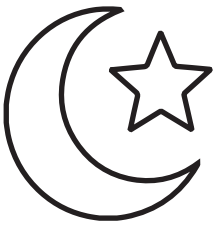
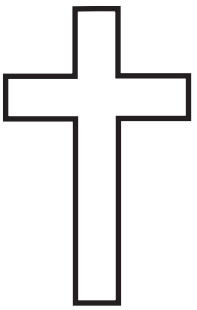
How to Play:
Match each symbol of the major religions and worldviews with the corresponding definition that answers the question: How does God relate to humanity, if at all?





God relates personally to humans. He revealed this by His proclaimed name: "Emmanuel," meaning "God with us".

Receiving revelation from God isn't the key idea; understanding identity in the universe through deep meditation to reach enlightenment is.

God, the Supreme Being, is unknowable, but various gods and goddesses reveal His characteristics.

God relates to humanity only through prophets and authoritative teaching.

There is no God. Rather, each person essentially becomes "god" by living their own way.
