

Table Talk

"We were promised sufferings. They were part of the program. We were even told, 'Blessed are they that mourn,' and I accept it. I've got nothing that I hadn't bargained for. Of course, it is different when the thing happens to oneself, not to others; and, in reality, not imagination." – C.S. Lewis

Question:
If there was no
human suffering,
does that mean
there would never be a need
for compassion
either?
